

To our Subscribers, Correspondents, and Exchanges in the Southern Confederacy.

We have to request our friends, correspondents and exchanges in the Confederate States to direct everything to us—

"LOUISVILLE COURIER," Nashville,
Tenn."

Tennessee Money.
The demand on Tennessee money is now so heavy that it is a low price which we can afford to give for it. We have, therefore, to request our friends and correspondents to send us, hereafter, only such bills as are at par here. All depreciated money quoted hereafter will be taken at only such value as we can give for it.

The Courier at Nashville.
Messrs. GERRARD & Co. are the sole and exclusive agents of the Louisville Courier at Nashville. They will deliver it to regular subscribers and supply to dealers and newsboys.

Military Encampment.
Col. R. W. Hanson has ordered into camp for military instruction, near the Big Springs, in Washington county, on the 1st day of July, the following Companies:

1. Lexington Guards, commanded by Capt. Morgan.
2. Governor's Guards, commanded by Capt. Morgan.
3. Kentucky Guards, commanded by Capt. Morgan.
4. Union Guards, commanded by Capt. Morgan.

The encampment will commence on the 1st day, and continue six days. General Hanson, together with Governor Magoffin and the other members of the Military Commission, are expected to review this Battalion on the 4th day of July.

The Citizen Guards, of Louisville, and other Companies have been invited to attend, and are expected to be present upon the occasion.

The South Carolina Volunteers.
We learn from the Charleston Mercury that the Southern men at Vienna were a part of Col. Moxley's First Regiment of South Carolina Volunteers. They were not only brave, but they were also patriotic.

Tennessee Secession.
The Independent Tennesseean is publishing the Secession Ordinance, in 6,000, with no return from Union, Cumberland, and Putnam counties.

Between seventy and eighty boxes of the "Lynch" machine were sent up the Louisville and Lexington Railroad last Thursday. It seems that they are intended for the Union men of the mountains, the boxes being directed as follows:

George P. Brown, Louisville, Ky.
John G. Ewe, Harborsville, Knox county, Kentucky.
"M. Fraser, Mt. Vernon, Harborsville, Kentucky." The boxes were labeled "1864."

An outrage.—A man named Jack Burns, stepped into the house of Fannie Brady, about 10 o'clock Saturday night, and, without cause or provocation, struck one of the women, when she realized by breaking a splinter over his head, wounding him severely. Saved him right.

The Nashville Patriot says letters of suspicion and reproach have been sent by the Confederated river boys, and when obtained they will do the State and the Southern cause effective service. A first class steamer will be in their command.

Reported execution for Federal troops.—It is reported that three companies of Federal troops are to form the nucleus of an expedition in the vicinity of this city during the present week. If this rumor be true, they are doubtless a part of Gen. Rousseau's brigade, which the Government has authorized him to form.

Messrs. Nelson, Davis & Grant have engaged in the manufacture of saltpeter in caves in the "Mills-Slick Knob" of Monroe county, Tenn., where they are an abundant supply of material. They are erecting a powder mill in the State arsenal, in Boone county. At the latter place they have a heavy water power.

The murderer McElrath.—The motion for a new trial in the case of John McElrath, convicted of murder, was overruled by Judge Muir on Saturday. The man was not returned, however, the Judge laying it over for the present, the counsel for the prisoner entering a plea of insanity.

The report that the new rifle made on the R.R. had fired on Newell's Mills, is contradicted. The battery is said to be entirely out of sight of Fort Meade and the R.R. Raps. A trial of the gun was made towards Cape Henry, and proved to be a very long range.

Devoted, charged with receiving stolen goods, knowing the same to be stolen, was convicted in the Criminal Court Saturday. Penitentiary one year. His son was acquitted.

Francis Skyles, f. m. c., was tried for larceny Saturday in the Circuit Court; confessed guilty, and threw himself upon the mercy of the Jury. Penitentiary one year.

Henry Davis, of "Pain Killer" notoriety, was seriously injured by being thrown from his carriage near Bristol Ferry, Ky., recently.

North Carolina Train.—The Washington D. C. Dispatch says that it has recently drawn out of Greensboro, the best of green tea to China, grown in Hyde county.

Retardation.—The break in the water works, were repaired to day, has been repaired, and is now "O. K."

Lord Palmerston is very much broken; his attacks of gout are now much more frequent than ever before.

The Newcomb girls are not dislodged as has been stated, but are attached to the State Guard.

Three thousand dollars, Kentucky State 60, and 50 in New York on Thursday.

I believed that General Magruder will be victorious for his gallant conduct in the fight at Rebel Church.

The steamer Glen Cove was fired by an incendiary at the Richmond wharf on Monday, and destroyed. It is a great loss.

There are only twelve night watchmen employed in New Albany at present, twelve having been discharged the other day.

There are four military companies organized in Jeffersonville for the new call of the Government.

The Memphis banks have taken $100,000 of the Confederate States, issued $100,000 to Memphis for war purposes, and $25,000 to Mississippi for the use of the army at Corinth.

A broker in Baltimore lately took $10,000 in Virginia money to Richmond, and obtained a draft on New York for the amount at seven and one-half per cent.

ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

Letter from Se De Kay.

Pleasant Weather—Our Subscribers—Battle of Phillipi—A Noble Woman—True Daughter of Kentucky—President Davis, &c., &c.

THE DRIVING RAIN, and drenching mists, and boning fog that so many days have been reading soldiers' life almost insupportable, disappeared last night, and this morning found day dawning on the mountains top, beautiful as when first revealed to Paradise.

We are still the prey of rumors and conflicting reports. One day brings in the news of the capture of the enemy, and the next day the heavy laden produced by the dispatches and letters in the eastern papers concerning our condition and movements. Some have it that we are starting out; others, that the army is decimating our ranks; some say we have evacuated the Ferry, and others yet, that we are strongly fortified and possess a force of 17,000 men.

Well, we are not starved yet. Every man in camp is fat and healthy, and the day the commissary will receive from Richmond 500,000 pounds of bacon, 50,000 pounds of sugar, and 60,000 pounds of coffee. A. J. Crittenden, the Commissary Department reveals immense supplies. There is no reason to picket Abraham and all his disciples. The war-houses grow with a superabundance of food. There is no need to wait on the Black Republicanism of the North, and a quantity of candles quite ample to the illumination of our path to victory. There are no fat cattle on a thousand hills, and pepper, salt, and similar commodities of indolence.

There is not a single case of small-pox, and since the war has been stationed here only five deaths from disease of any character have occurred. We have no 17,000 men, but, then, what we lack in numbers we make up in spirit, and no 30,000 Yankees can ever drive us from our stronghold.

The army at Phillipi. In Harbor county, Va., I see, been constrained into a victory by the Northerners. It is difficult to conceive their idea of a triumph. The forces under Gen. Morris amounted to a full brigade, while the Virginians under Col. Porterfield did not constitute a battalion. But the disparity in the loss was more than made up in the number of the contending armies. We report six missing, and have indubitable evidence of forty-seven of the enemy being killed and wounded.

But it would be impossible to keep pace with the falsehoods and misrepresentations of the Northern press. They have entered upon the struggle with the predetermined purpose of accomplishing by lying that which they cannot do by force of arms. They intend winning all the battles on paper. Certainly they are very welcome to the party of the North, and we shall not fail to publish their boasts of victory and their boasts of glory.
